KISHWAUKEE CHILDREN'S CHORUS • 2009—2010 CHORAL SEASON

Who We Are

The mission of Kishwaukee Children's Chorus (KCC) is to provide the children of DeKalb County with opportunity for artistic, spiritual, and personal growth through choral music performance.

KCC is a community children's chorus comprised of musically talented children, grades 3-6, who are committed to learning and performing a wide variety of children's choral music. KCC is an organization as a non-profit faith-based organization emphasizing the development of musical and performance skills as well as promoting excellence in all areas of life (musical, academic, spiritual). Through choral music performance, KCC strives to build within its singers a sense of self-esteem, confidence, accomplishment, and life-excellence.

Tuition

$100/year per singer

Multi-child discount: Families with more than one singer will be eligible for a $50 discount for each additional singer (i.e. 2 singers=$100+$50).

There are two (2) payment options:

- One full-tuition payment due by September 9
- Two half-tuition payments due by September 9 and January 9

Payment deadline: September 10, 2009 (Fall); January 9, 2010 (Spring). Failure to pay by those deadlines will result in a $10 late fee. Tuition fees may be paid by cash or check. Tuition fees are non-refundable.

Philosophy

The philosophy of excellence which guides the mission of KCC is rooted in the following Bible verse:

"Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men." – Colossians 3:23

KCC believes that children can be inspired to reach their greatest potential in life as they wholeheartedly use their gifts and talents in all they do for God's glory. KCC strives to instill this kind of excellence in all areas of life: musical, academic, and spiritual.

Paul Rogers

Paul Rogers, KCC Musical Director, founded Kishwaukee Children's Chorus in 2008. Mr. Rogers is currently the Associate Minister of Worship and Music at the Evangelical Free Church of Sycamore-DeKalb and has been actively involved in teaching music to children for over 20 years. He has earned Bachelor of Music and Master of Music degrees from Northern Illinois University and a Doctor of Worship Studies degree from the Institute for Worship Studies.

Mr. Rogers' musical background includes performances as a concert pianist in over a dozen states. He has won numerous music awards including first prize in the Richmond Symphony Orchestra Concerto Competition, third prize at the Ellis National Duo-Piano Competition, and was a finalist in the Star Song National New Artist Search performing live on national television. His performances have been featured on South Carolina Public Television, TV38 in Chicago, and The Family Channel. He has appeared as soloist with several orchestras including the Kishwaukee Symphony Orchestra, Hilton Head Symphony Orchestra, Richmond Youth Symphony, and the York River Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Rogers has released one CD recording of sacred piano music which has been broadcast nationally on WMBI. He has taught music to students of all ages through the Northern Illinois University's Community Music School since 1989.

As both musician and pastor, Mr. Rogers' vision is to impact the children of DeKalb county through musical and spiritual growth and to inspire excellence in all areas of life.
